

David Toussaint Alexander

November 8, 1956 - October 4, 2010

David Toussaint Alexander was born on November 8th 1956 at the Naval Hospital in Bethesda, Maryland and departed this life on October 4th 2010. He was the fourth child born to Benjamin and Mary Lee Alexander. The majority of his formative years were spent, in and around the Nation's Capital, Washington, D.C.

David matriculated from Coolidge Senior High School in 1976 (D.C.) and the University of the District of Columbia in 1994 and 1999 with Bachelors (Administration of Justice) and Masters (Counseling) Degrees.

His life's work took many forms, Army and D.C. National Guardsman, Phlebotomist, University Campus Policeman, Parole Officer, and Counselor/Psychotherapist. He particularly enjoyed mental health counseling with individuals, families and celebrated the progressive breakthroughs that he felt privileged to have facilitated. David's professional counseling affiliations included the American Psychotherapy Association (APA), Diplomate; National Board of Certified Counselors (NBCC) – Board Certified; Licensed Clinical Professional Counselors of Maryland (LCPCM); and Licensed Professional Counselors of the District of Columbia (LPC).

He was united in holy matrimony with Ingrid Owens Alexander October 9, 1998 in Riva, Maryland. Their primary spiritual fellowship occurred with the Unitarian Universalists congregations, All Soul's (D.C.) and Goodloe Memorial (Bowie, MD). They resided in the Bowie and Mitchellville, Maryland communities in Prince George's County.

In his recreational time David enjoyed a number of outdoor activities, bicycling camping swimming and scuba diving. However, he coveted motorcycle riding as his hobby of choice, providing countless smiles and elated memories.

David is survived by his wife Ingrid Owens Alexander, one (1) brother Benjamin Alexander (Debra), two (2) sisters Sally Bernadette Walker-Osborne, Melika Eman, seven (7) nephews, two (2) nieces, as well as a host of other relatives and friends.
