“ Thank you too everyone for your kind words and donations in the loving memory of my husband. David Edward is my love, my best friend, my right-hand anything I needed for 21 years. My husband will be missed. My last day with him we talk about how we meet and how he loved our family.

“ I just would like to share a memory I had with Ed. The last spades game that we shared was during a Father's Day Event given at your house. There was plenty of family , more then enough friends , but most of all; it was the choice words for me that we shared crossed the table..... Priceless! For those family and friends who know me, we all know that Ed and I had plenty of choice words to share, for those who may not know, it was all done out of love and from the heart. You will be missed my Trash Talker, No filter, Mind Spoken, my Friend. To the Family , Friends and loved ones , I would like to send my condolences . I know that times like this may be hard to process for a moment , but please remember to trust GOD and know that HE don't make no mistakes! Please find comfort in you hearts to know that GOD has called HIS son Ed home. Rest in Peace my friend. Until we meet again. BE BLESSED 🙏. From Katrina Sanders and the Sanders Family.
