“ The Dry Family, Sends our condolences to the William Family. The dry kids all I grew up with David in D.C. We went to school with him , the boys hung out with him. they even gave him a nickname Sqouze, i don't know know why they gave him that name , ask my brother onion and Louie also fish and big bob. They had there little crew!!! David was a nice gentle person who would always help out. He even Dj for my brother in laws birthday. He loved music .He was like a brother to us . Were going to miss him, but his memories will go on. Rest in Peace my brother...Your Home now. LOVE YOU, THE DRY FAMILY

“ My deepest condolences to the Family and friends of David.

I was saddened to hear about David's passing. David was my 2nd cousin. I hadn't seen my family in quite some time. And, it had been quite some time since we had a video call to catch-up. But, I recall enjoying our last conversation very much. This was due to David's easy nature. I recall David as always kind and welcoming. This is how you will be remembered.

I hope you are at peace David. Rest in heavenly peace.

*Love,
Patricia Fairley Ruffin*
