“ Deacon Kelsey helped my father to move me into my house when I first came here. He said that it was important to him because he was friends with my Uncle, Will Hooper. He and Mrs. Kelsey have always looked out for me since I moved onto their street. I am SO glad that I was able to see him again recently. He smiled at me. I will always remember that. He was a good man who will be monumentally missed. I will never forget him.##imported-begin##Cindy Hooper##imported-end##
