Deborah was married to my brother William. They had their challenges but loved one another. He was an excellent caregiver. I actually watched him bath and care for her in special ways. He will miss her and so will I.

*I love you,
Annie*

“ Deborah was exceptionally sensitive, kind and loving to me. I will always remember and appreciate her advice. She gave me $70.00 for my birthday following our initial acquaintance. I was totally surprised! You ordered food for me on several occasions and had it delivered. She was more than patient with me even when I was undeserving. I travelled to Washington Hospital Center with her husband to visit during her hospitalization. My sincere love was expressed to her while at her bedside. I was overcome with sadness but hope she was able to hear my voice. Only the LORD knows. I will never forget her!

I'm truly happy Deborah was a part of my life. I have autism but she did not discriminate!

Thanks for loving me because I love you too!

Respectfully,

Keysean

Deborah absolutely loved her brother Darnell!

He supported his sister with financial gifts and numerous gifts in other ways.

She said, my brother is good to me!

Job well done Darnell!

Your sister appreciated everything you did for her yet while she lived.

*Thanks for loving her because she definitely
LOVED YOU!*

You are a man to be admired...

*Thanks,
Annie*
