“ Debra was the sweetest, most kind, adoring and loving cousin anyone could be blessed to have. I will always remember how proud she was of her family and the love she gave to us all. The Dudley family lost a crown jewel in Debra Annette Dudley, but I realize she is traveling a road we must all go. Heaven became a much better place because of her arrival. Blessings to Debra's family.

“ I pray that Debra's family and friends feel God's presence during this difficult time. I met Debra through my friend/brother and former co-worker David Duarte while working for FDIC. Such a quiet and gentle spirit. "The Lord is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will HOPE in HIM." May God bless you all. Gloria Debnam, Raleigh, NC

“ Debra was the quiet pretty girl that I was scared to ask her name. Why was that? Because she always carried herself like a lady. God bless her and her family.
