Dee Dee and I attended Elementary school together. Plummer. We were either in the same 5th or 6th grade class. My family lived on Chaplain Street. We, at times, would walk home from school together. It was so safe in those days. I remember her singing, Let There Be Peace On Earth, during a school program. Even as an elementary school kid, I was moved. She was quite talented. My mother and her mom were friends. Both educators. Fascinatingly, our families eventually relocated to the Hillcrest community. We all played basketball at the recreation center there. I delivered the Washington Star to her parents' home. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. We've lost many peers from those communities. On behalf of my family, to the Pryde family, please accept our deepest condolences. From Chaplain Street to Hillcrest, we are family. Chris Jenkins
