“ Donnell and Cathy,

You are loved and will always be in my prayers. We will miss your mother's quiet and gentle spirit at RCG! She loved her church! May she rest in heavenly peace until we all meet again!

“ Lois is now with my sister, her friend Johnnie Mae. My fondest memory was when they were teenagers and Lois, Johnnie and Yvonne were standing together with there little group probably trying to get Ronnie Lee and Ronnie Mason’s attention and someone threw a cherry boom into there crowd. Johnnie, Lois, Gl and Yvonne had to go to the hospital in an ambulance because they were all hurt, bleeding or couldn’t hear. I am sure the person who did it had no ideal of the impact it would have. I was much younger and always trying to hang around them so I could feel like a teenager so I witness this. I also witnessed a friendship involve into adulthood. They may not hung out in the alley anymore but they always loved each other. God has them now.
