

Delores M. Harvey

February 12, 1935 - January 20, 2026

Delores Harvey lived a life anchored in faith, love, and devotion to God and her family. She found great joy in reading her Bible, faithfully attending church, and her walk with the Lord guided every step of her life. Her quiet strength, gentle spirit, and steady prayer life were a source of comfort and encouragement to all who knew her. She lived her faith daily—not only through her words, but through her kindness, patience, and the way she cared for others.

Married in 1959, Delores built a life centered on love, commitment, and family. In 1969, she courageously migrated from Jamaica to the United States in pursuit of greater opportunity and a better future for her children. She was a devoted mother of six children and is lovingly survived by four of them. Through sacrifice, perseverance, and her unwavering trust in God, she created a foundation of strength and faith that will continue to guide her family for generations.

Delores was predeceased in death by her two sons, Leroy Harvey and Rohan Harvey. She is survived by her husband, Sylvester Harvey; her four children, Patrick Harvey, Philbert Harvey (Sophia Perch-Harvey), Ada Gordon, and Dianne Harvey; her grandchildren, Rashard Harvey, Christopher Gordon, Kristine Williams, Sade Harvey, and Deandre Harvey; her great-granddaughter, Aries Gordon; and a host of relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Delores Harvey will be remembered as a faithful woman who loved the Lord, cherished her family, and remained steadfast in her beliefs through every season of life. Though she will be deeply missed, her legacy of faith, resilience, and love will forever live on in the hearts of those she leaves behind.
