“ Though I cannot be at the service, I am mourning Denise, who was a beautiful person. First, she was a friend through Jazzercise. Then, I admired her persistence in getting her graduate degree and appreciated the work she did when I visited her at the court house. She was robbed of her breath and her life far too young. My thoughts are with her family at this sad time.##imported-begin##Malca Giblin##imported-end##

Oh God thank You for sending a comforter we rely on, You Holy Spirit to carry us in difficult times. It's still hard to believe it's been 12 years since my dear friend Denise went home to our Father in Heaven, and living in her mansion that God promised. I praise God and thank God for such a beautiful, kind, caring, generous and phenomenal friend. God bless the Whitmires, Gibsons and all the family, friends, coworkers and anyone who had the pleasure of meeting and knowing Denise. God bless you immensely and completely always.
