“ Momma Denise, it's been a while since you took that beautiful journey to sky, but I still think of you everyday. You were and are still an amazing woman with love in your heart that only GOD could have placed there. I can still hear you calling Michelle by her special nickname and hugging your children with playful squeezes on their behinds. LOL I use to watch you guys in wonderment because I wanted to do all the things that they did with you. I love you so much that I still have not been able to describe it. Down the road you made me feel like you took me in as another daughter and I loved you even more because I needed that something extra. You will never know what you mean to me and how much I still miss you. You were truly one of GOD'S angels on earth and I'm so thankful for sharing part of my life with you.

Love you and keep watching all of us.

“ To my loving and carefree mother, mommy, best friend, everything that a child could wish for and want in a mother. You have taught me alot through your actions as well as your words. You are the first person that taught me how to love and be loved. Everything seems so upside down since GOD saw fit for you to be with him. Im not mad or bitter but my heart is broken, because the love of my life is not with me. Everyday I think about all the things we shared from us being little children up until the very day GOD called you home. All I know is that I miss you, daddy, grandma, and pop-pops very much. You and I had so much fun together. I enjoyed the talks that we had, you never had a judgemental bone in your body. I use love to watch you sleep beacuse I knew that you was not worried about a thing that was going on at that time. I can truely say that God blessed us with a beautiful person to groom, lecture, love, and teach us the way of life. You not only loved us, you loved everyone in our lives and I love you for that. You was my angel here on earth and now you are my angel in heaven. You gave the best hugs. I will fovever love and miss you with all of my heart, mind, body and soul. Continue to keep us in your loving arms.

Loving you with everything I have
