“ Derrick Cain was a fine man and friend to many. I know him for his humble spirit and friendly demeanor. My few encounters with this man of God was always met with a big smile and genuine concern for my well being. Our social media exchanges were about football or our rivary High Schools. Derrick LOVED football! His wife, my childhood friend has suffered a great loss and should know that my prayers and love are with you now and always.

“ My condolences to the Cain family. For all the memories I have the first one that jumps out at me was his faith he developed in Jesus Christ. I grow up with this family and I will always remember Egg's laugh and smile he did that a lot. The only person I know to get hit by a metro bus break his leg and was able to run faster after the accident. My prayers and my thoughts go out to this beautiful family and thanks for sharing Derek Cain with us. Said for the loss of great brother but spiritually understanding who he served and understanding where he will be resting. RIP EGG LOVE YOU BYRD!
