“ I sure do miss you "D". It seems like you are away on vacation and will be back soon-- and I am wondering when are you going to call me and let me know that you are back in town. All I can do now is to remember our long talks, our visits with one another and our laughter. We could always make each other smile and laugh. Don't even think that I am going to ever stop talking to you -- I talk to you constantly like I always did -- nothing has changed in that respect and don't think it ever will. "D" remember when you told me about Kimberly? Guess what? Kimberly and I used to be neighbors! Right now I can feel and see that smile of yours as you are saying "for real" "why didn't you tell me". I had no idea it was the "Kim" that I know. I had better stop for now because I am getting in the talkative mold. I want you to know again -- that all my friends and cousins who met you will never forget "Derwin" and I miss you dearly. Well, the tears are streaming down my cheeks so I had better let you rest. I still want to meet your Mother to let her know how much you meant to me and our friends. You are special and will always have a place in my heart. I love you "D" and God Bless. P.S. You know we will be seeing each other again some day.##imported-begin##Sondra##imported-end##

“ I am sitting with no words and know expression. Just my mind racing and wondering Why him. All I can do is cry. I am at a stand still. The one and only person that has been in my life for the past three months is gone. He was my life and my love. We just started to get to know each other and all he talk about was his kids and family and what we will have together. His last words to me was Wednesday April 18th. Those words were, that I love you Kim and my returns words were the same. My life will be totally different from here on out. He change me as a person and a human being and now I dont know what direction to go. I didn't get to see the one person I fell in love with leave me. I know he is in a better place I just really miss him. All I can do is sit here and picture that big smile and that loud laugh of happiness when we were together. How can I forget him? I can't. but I know I will see him again one day. My condolences goes out to his family because I did not get a chance to meet the people he spoke about a lot and wanted me to meet. My God Bless his family. Kimberly##imported-begin##Kimberly R. Corum##imported-end##
