“ *Greg and CJ,
I am so sorry for your loss. I learned of it late and couldn't process it when I heard the news. She was my favorite. Her hard work and progress at NRH was so inspiring...I loved staying in touch with her after she left and wish she'd been able to meet my wife, so that they could give me a hard time about my diet, together. I am glad to know she is breathing easy now.*

She used to get a kick out of stealing my leaving words from me, "Is there anything else I can do for you?" she'd say, to make the offer before I could.

There is nothing more she could have done for me. She was perfect...I will miss her.

“ Sending our family condolences. Missing our cousin dearly. Whenever we got together she would always tell us stories. One of our favorites was the story she would tell of the day someone called and asked for Bill. “Who the HELL is Bill? I know Donnell but Bill ain’t here!” We laughed so hard we cried!

“ Wow Auntie!! I was heartbroken when I got that call you changed your address. Thank you for always being so sweet but direct with me as a child and as an adult. Your wings were ready but our hearts were not. Rest on and be free. Tell my mother I said hello and give her the biggest hug from me. I love you! ❤️

“ The way Auntie would fuss at me for using paper towels. Still to this day, when I use a lot of paper towels, I think of her yelling at me, lol. Auntie, we talked once a week, I am missing that weekly call already. I found myself setting my cell phone alarm, for our weekly call, because I miss you so much. My heart is hurting.
