“ I can hear my friend say, "Don't grieve for me, celebrate me!" So, with honoring her wish, may the McLain Family continue sharing in the precious memories that overtake sadness and mourning with smiles for we know our beloved Diane has been set free of pain and suffering; she's alive with the King of kings; let us rejoice and be glad. Love, Daphne

“ *To our cousin Michael,
Your sister, I beloved cousin Diane filled our lives with happiness and sweet feelings that will carry in our hearts forever. We will miss her smile and the love she has for people. May the Love of God surround you with people to help you through the days ahead. We send our sincere condolences to you.*

Love your cousins Ethel Muckle Banks and Pamela Muckle

“ I worked with Diane at the Washington Navy Yard. She was always a kind, happy and loving person. I always looked forward to seeing her beautiful smile and she always had a shining light about her. She was such a wonderful person both inside and out. Rest in peace my beautiful friend! You are with the angels now! Love you!
