“ To the family of brother Bently we the Walters family are praying for you. God saw an empty spot in the garden and decided to send the angels to bring brother Bently home to fill that spot.! and remember God makes NO mistake. Brother Bently is in a better place rejoicing. So be encouraged and look to the hill where your help comes from. be blessed !

The Francis Family is grateful to God for the opportunity to have know and shared our lives with Dinella Bentley. We have and will always consider him a part of our family. Our loss is Gods gain!! Brother B was one of Gods angels while here on earth. Our Family has known him for forty plus years and during that time he has reflected the values in life that God wants us all to have...He was always kind, always humble, always loyal, always concerned, always giving, and always a friend you can depend on when you needed him. You could not find better friend or more loyal person than Dinella Bentley. We love you and we wiss you Brother B but we will never forget you!!.
