“ How often I look up and remember something we said. Some jibber-jabber, some Spanish, French, patois all mixed up together and just laughed at being silly. We did not have to worry about what anyone thought of us. Who cares. You were my brother. How I miss you! I know you're 8n a better place, without the hurts and the pain. You're perfect now in the eyes of God, your Heavenly Father. You're with your Mother, Father sister and those who have gone on before you. Love and miss you my brother Danny.
