“ When Nautica had Khari. I hurried and called Donald to let him know he was now a great grandfather. The fist thing he said was that he was too young for that roll. I already had 2 And told him about the joys. Every picture I got of Kari I forwarded to him and he would always thank me profusely. One day he called and said he hit something and had lost all of the pictures. While I'm trying to talk him through retrieval he was constantly talking about males in society and how he hoped Kari would not have to go through anything. He said he loved him and would do anything possible if he need him. I feel comfort in knowing that he will be told about gramps and that gramps is looking out over him.
