“ I immediately recognized Don's warm, radiant smile in the photo in the Post and well remember that smile and his friendly and courteous voice from when we worked together years ago. Deepest sympathy to all the family for loss of his warm friendliness and cheer.

“ I wish to express my sincere condolence at the loss of your father. Losing a parent can be difficult thing to cope with. The presence of them, their smiles, the laughs, the support they gave are all things to cherish but for the moment they will no longer be enjoyed. Certainly take advantage of the support family and friends provide at this time. It's their way of showing they care. God also cares too! 1 Peter 5:6,7 He invites us to throw all our anxiety upon him. Jesus gives us hope for he cares so much for us that he was willing to give his life so that we could have a chance at everlasting life in the near future. John 3:16 This was well in harmony with his father's will for mankind. While here on earth he demonstrated his power over death by resurrecting ones from the dead. Luke 7:12-16, John 11:11-44 He further promises that there will be a resurrection for those who fall asleep in death. John 5:28,29 Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection to life. Our heavenly father has given his word that this will be done! Further death will be done away with soon for Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Yes death will not continue to zap our joy in life. 1 Corinthians 15:26 If it be the will of God you may see your love one again. This hope the bible assures us is a true hope for the future when the righteous will possess the earth and all wickedness will be done away with. Until then may the God of comfort be with you during this difficult situation. May provide you with his peace that will control your heart and mental powers by means of his dear son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Garrick's Messages##imported-end##
