

SPC Donald H. Joshua

November 24, 1996 - August 19, 2025

SPC Donald H. Joshua, affectionately known as “Duck,” was born on November 24, 1996, in Washington, D.C. He was a proud Warrior, graduating from H. D. Woodson High School, a proud Soldier, later enlisting in the United States Army, and a proud Washingtonian, even though he was a Chargers & Golden State fan.

To know Donald was to love him. He was truly a man of no enemies. A gentle giant whose presence could bring joy to any room he walked in. Donald’s greatest love was his family, football and his PlayStation. A proud father, faithful son, loving husband, loyal brother, devoted twin, most fun uncle, cherished friend, honorable battle buddy, trusted teammate, and committed mentor to his community. His presence touched the lives of so many, and his departing deeply hurts the hearts of all who knew him.

SPC Donald H. Joshua departed this life on August 19, 2025, and will be laid to rest in honors, at Arlington Cemetery. He preceded in death alongside his Father, Ronald Bandy, Grandmother, Theresa Joshua, Nephew, Zyaire Joshua and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and loved ones.

Donald leaves to cherish his memory:
