“ To the Porter Family

You are in my thoughts and prayers. Know that God will give you comfort in the days ahead. I met Donald many years ago when he lived in Pittsburgh. We both attended the same church. Donald was a very kind and caring person. I'm grateful for his friendship over the years.

“ My sincerest condolences and prayers to the family of my dear sweet friend Donald Andre Porter. I talked to him at least 2-3 times a week (more on the days he was feeling very talkative about music, current events & whatever else came to his mind). We last talked when he called me on the Wednesday before he transitioned and said our goodbyes. Since you've been gone I've found myself wanting to call you and tell you over & over just how much I love and miss you. Even though my heart is broken, I know that you're in a better place with no more pain so until we meet again know that I ❤️ you man! 🙏💕🙏💕🙏

“ I met Donald over 10 years ago when I moved into the neighborhood. He was always quick to offer any help that was needed and I know he was a good neighbor to those in his building. Whenever we talked in person or on the phone he always ended the conversation "We'll talk soon, my friend". He always called everyone his friend and followed through with actions not just words. RIP, my friend. -- Carolina

“ I had the pleasure of attending the University of Pittsburgh Pitt with Donald and always remember him being a kind upbeat and wonderful dancer. He represented DC well at the Kappa house twirling that kane and holding down the dance floor. You've reached heaven's dance floor Donald. Tap away.
