

Doris Ann Bryant

May 18, 1949 - January 2, 2022

Doris Ann Bryant, the fourth oldest of eleven siblings, was born to the late Leary Bun Bryant & Hannah Jane Bryant on May 18, 1949, in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She transitioned to her Heavenly home to be with the Lord on January 2nd, 2022.

Doris attended the public school system of North Carolina & at an early age, gave her life to Christ. Later in life, she for years worked at DC's based Raleigh Haberdasher, more commonly called Raleigh's. Her other fields of occupation consisted of insurance & child & elderly care. She rendered services to a number of seniors at DC's Friendship Terrace Community where she was for years a staple.

Doris was a long-standing member at her home church, Mt. Calvary Holy Church of Deliverance, where she served faithfully as a member & on various auxiliaries. Doris will always be remembered for her passion for cooking, & how such was praised by many. She will also be remembered for her stylish flair which often consisted of her standout hats.

Doris' memories will be cherished by her loving & caring sons, Terrence Spencer & Nikalas Acker (Jasmynes), whom she often doted on & whom she called "her boys"; 4 sisters: 3 brothers & a host of family & friends. Doris will certainly be missed by many, but we're glad to know she's resting in peace.

We love you Doris!
