“ I just learned today July 18of Mrs. Wiley's transition. She was a most gracious, loving lady who enveloped you in her love and positive spirit. I shall miss her as will my 8-year old daughter, Lihua, who visited Rev. and Mrs. Wiley with me several times. I'll treasure the last picture I took of them together in Dec., 2007.

“ Drs Wiley Dennis and Chris, Please accept my sincere condolences on the recent loss of your Mother. She was truly a wonderful person who always showed an endearing and loving spirit. In her own unique way, she touched my life and often gave me a reason to be grateful in the midst of life's trials and tribulation. Know that she meant a lot to all who had the good fortune to be in her presence. Also, pass along my prayers to Pastor Emeritus. She truly set the bar high and you made her so proud.

May God's Peace and Grace be with you.##imported-begin##Greta Y Davis##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to you Dennis and your family. Though it is a time of great sadness and a deep sense of loss, it is also a time to celebrate your mother's life and the wonderful legacy she leaves behind. May those beautiful memories bring your family comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Ron Jordan##imported-end##

“ To the Wiley Family,

With our deepest sympathy, No one else can truly feel the sorrow that you bear. Still, may it help somehow today to know how much we care.

And may it help to ease your loss and bring some comfort too. To know our many thoughts are there, in sympathy with you.

“ Dear Rev. Dennis W., Rev. Christine Y. Wiley and Covenant Baptist Family,

*Scripture tells us in Romans 6:23,
The Gift of God is eternal life through Jesus.*

Each soul is a beautiful flower that passes from this earth only to bloom again heaven's garden.

We are praying God's peace will fall freshly upon you, Rev. Christine and Covenant Baptist family.

With Deepest Sympathy and Prayers,##imported-begin##Nellie E. Williams##imported-end##

“ I wish to offer condolences to Dennis Wiley, my friend and fellow graduate of Calvin Coolidge High School, and to the members of his family. Of course the passing of a love one, regardless of the circumstances, poses a profound test of our faith and, despite all that we believe, causes sadness. To Dennis, I say remember that any good parent’s most fervent hope is that her son or daughter will grow up to be productive, happy, and to have learned the truths that have born the test of time immemorial. You have done that and made your mother proud. Do take care and know that you and your family are in the thoughts and prayers of friends during this sad time.##imported-begin##Henry H. “ Aunt Doris was an extraordinary person of uncompromising faith and perpetually filled with a spirit of good cheer. She was blessed with a keen intellect and a biting wit. There was never a time when I did not come away from a conversation with her feeling better than when I entered it. I was honored and blessed to have her as my aunt and the void left in my heart by her passing will never be filled. She walked with God so that she could live with Him.##imported-begin##Dale M.
