“ Mother Gray will truly be missed. She was the epitome of a good First Lady. Mother Gray always knew what and when to say something. She welcomed in newcomers to the church and made them want to come back again and even to become members of GGCOGIC. I will always remember her Godly kindness. I am still in disbelief and so I can imagine how her husband and family must feel. But, may they find comfort in the fact that she had a good life, and God does all things well.

“ Dorothy Gray will always be remembered for her unassuming support for the Sunday School. I remember at Refreshing Spring Church Of God in Christ, children who were in Sunday School were featured in the Refreshing Spring Baby Opera initiated by Mother Berline Headen. Dorothy’s son, Duane Gray, was pictured at only a couple months old. The foundation was provided early for his Godly nourishment via the Sunday School. Later, his brother Kevin was also a Sunday School scholar.

Dorothy extended her hospitality again to the Sunday School when Mother Jean Smith of Refreshing Spring Church of God in Christ initiated an all expense paid trip to the AIM – Auxiliaries in Ministry Convention. The Sunday School students and chaperones were delighted and you not only provided your verbal blessings, but we appreciated your generous financial support.

Dorothy also had her children and grandchildren in Sunday School at God Glorified Church of God in Christ. She was also a sustainable presence in Sunday School and her comments concerning the various lesson topics were appreciated.

However, a lasting impression you provided was to the little children in the beginners class - ages five and under, when they came before the church to give their review of the Sunday School lesson. When they spelled BIBLE and then JESUS, they saw your smile and heard your voice above all others who said GREAT JOB! Later, I could hear them tell others when they saw you, that she is a Good Lady!

Certainly, Dorothy will be remembered for helping to provide a great Godly foundation to the little children and she did a superb job! Dorothy exemplified the spirit of being a blessing to others. Even until her last days she was a Sunday School booster in mind and spirit!
