“ I met Aunt Dot during the time she was in Columbia thru my friend Cheryl. She was not my aunt by blood but she made sure myself and my boys called her Aunt Dot. She was no stranger to anyone and embraced me and my kids with love, each time we went by to help Cheryl care for her. I'll always remember how she enjoyed the boys and the smile they put on her face. She also brought joy into their lives when talking with her on the phone. She was a loving teacher, even after she retired and a true woman of God. My prayers are with her family and friends. She will truly be missed. Yet, her love will live on through everyone she touched.
