“ I met Dorothy in 1979 when she came to work at APWU Health Plan. We became good friends. Dorothy was like a big sister to me. I admired her confidence. She taught me how to make sweet potato pies. We would go on shopping trips and I learned how to buy the best quality for my money. Dorothy used to say to me "I can do bad all by myself, I don't need anybody to help me do bad." I thought at the time that Dorothy made that saying up until a movie came out with that title. I loved Dorothy and her family. She will be missed.

“ My condolences to the Bell and Richardson families. I will always cherish the memories of growing up with the Bell family. Buchanan Street was the place to hang out!! I lived on Allison Street and hung out on Buchanan Street. If I wasn't at their house, I was in the car going somewhere with Cynthia and Mom. Always with Love, Stephanie
