“ Herb,

My heart goes out to you for the physical loss of your mom. I say physical because she will never leave you. She will always be in your heart and memory. I have been praying that God comforts and gets you through your greiving so that you can think about your mom and smile or chuckle. Both God and your mom are smiling at you for the dedicated, selfless care you gave your mom. For that, I will always admire you and strive to do the same when my turn comes. I am so happy that you don't have to deal with any of the usual regrets that plague so many others. You were a wonderful son which is the best gift you could ever give to your mother.##imported-begin##Karen Sistrunk##imported-end##

“ Homegoing is a time of contrasts. For your mother there is the release from her earthbound pain and knowing the promise of the Savior.

But for those left behind,homegoing can be bittersweet. You have lost a mother, a friend, a loved one. You cannot visit or ring when you want to share someting with her, when you just want to know how she's doing.

But you also know the promise of the Savior. Take comfort in that promise and know she is at peace.##imported-begin##Derryl Stewart King##imported-end##

“ To:Herb & Rob,

Words can't explain the lost of your mother. She was a warm and genuine person and a wonderful mother. The combination of a wondersul mother is not an easy one, but your mother succeeded on that count. I truly believe she was equally blessed to have you and Rob as her son's, as I feel to have you as my friends.

Although your mother has passed, I am sure you will keep her spirit alive and powerful.May God continue to bless you and your family and bring you love, peace and contentment in your life now and always.

*A friend always,

“ To Herb, Rodney and Family,

My heart goes out to all of you for the lost of a wonderful woman your mom. During your grief and sorrow know that it will pass. There will come a time when all you think about are the great memories and the time you had with her. I pray that until that time comes that you call upon God and your friends to help you through.

“ To the entire Jones family. My deepest sympathy for the lost of a wonderful person Ms. Dorothy Jones. Our prayers go out to everyone. My family has known the Jones Family for over 50 years. From Our Redeemer Lutheran Church on Rhode Island Avenue to its current location on Michigan NE. To the choir where Dorothy sang so eloquently. She still is the best alto that I have ever heard. Her voice will undoubtedly be missed by all.##imported-begin##Lincoln Lee##imported-end##

“ To Children of Dorothy Jones,

When someone you love dies, especially if it's your mother, it feels like your foundation has been pulled out from under you. It's devastating. One thing that may be a source of comfort to you at this time is to know that the bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die. He told the first man and woman, Adam and Eve, that they would die only if they disobeyed his instructions. So, as a result of their sin that we inherited we all die.

All is not lost, however, since God's original purpose has not changed, although thwarted. He put in place the opportunity for a resurrection . This is stated at John 5:28,29. Yes, God has the power to resurrect those in his memory. So, there is hope that one day you will see your mother again. However, there is something you must do to enjoy that blessing.

A small tract entitled, "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones?", discusses this subject. The next time Jehovah's Witnesses come to your door, please ask them for your own personal copy of that tract or you can email me and I can mail it to you.

Sincerely,

Ms. White##imported-begin##Sharon White##imported-end##
