“ This is the day the LORD has made and I will rejoice and be glad.

I did not know Mr. Stroud personally but I still feel I knew him through the wonderful legacy and spirit he has left on this side through his beautiful and beloved daughter, Karen.

Over the many years I have known Karen, I have come to appreciate her many fine qualities among which are: patience, kindness, self control, loving, gentleness, happiness and faithfulness. These are the fruits of the spirit and I can only imagine that Mr. Stroud was also in part instrumental in helping cultivate these in her.

May you rest well in ancestry, Mr. Stroud. Know that we will lift up and support your daughter as she moves through this cycle of a fatherless daughter.

Peace and blessings to the entire family.

My condolences and sympathies particularly as one who is part of the fatherless daughter group.

“ Hey Lila, Lenny, Sean (Leah), Karen, Bobby (Linda), Jerry, Gloria, Bruce, and other family and friends. Yes, Jerilynn and I (Warren) share the grief and sadness at the passing of a great human, husband, father, brother, brother-in-law, opinionated friend and citizen. We will also forever miss attending a concert with Doug and Lila, e.g., to see/hear the group Incognito at the Birchmere, and hearing Doug's 'hue and cry" of "YEAH" and "GO 'HEAD," when the musicians and singers played/sang something that hit his musical sweet spot. And as I recall, Doug ate the damn french fries before I had a chance to beat him to it. So Doug, as only you could say it, "YEAH," "GO 'HEAD." We'll meet again in a better place. Thanks for being one great brother-in-law. We are Jerilynn and Warren (Sam).
