

Earlean Stanley Grogan

March 4, 1922 - August 14, 2020

Peacefully passed away on Friday, August 14, 2020 at 98 years young. She was born March 4, 1922 in Pensacola, FL. to the Rev. Ervin Stanley and Mamie Hayes. She is survived by her son, William J. Grogan, Jr. (Nellie), her two daughters, Rev. Desiré P. and Amyvonne; her sister-in law, Dorothy M. Stanley; four grandchildren; thirteen great grandchildren; eight great-great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Earlean's capstone accomplishment by the Grace of God, and at the age of 92, was to publish her own book, entitled, My Poetic Journey: A Memoir, (Outskirts Press ©2014), which tells her life's journey in the unique presentation of her original poetry coupled with the inspiring narrative of the life situation that gave birth to each poetic expression. Earlean's computer savvy, keyboarding dexterity, Facebook presence, and participation in Zoom meetings in her nineties made her a nonagenarian wonder~!

Due to COVID-19, a limited number of family and friends will visit with the family on Monday, August 31, 2020 from 10:00 a.m. until time of service at 11 a.m. in the Chapel of Marshall-March Funeral Home, 4308 Suitland Road, Suitland, MD.

I am praying for the Grogans, to be comforted, though Mrs. Grogan was a wonderful dedicated woman of God. I will never forget that beautiful voice from the Lofton Chorus when I sang with her in the choir, years back. God bless. Janice M. Davis.

“ I remember Mrs. Grogan as a staunch encourager at prayer meetings. I remember that she was outspoken concerning her faith in Jesus Christ. I remember her smile; I cannot remember ever seeing a frown on her forehead. She was a gracious host when our singing group would practice and fellowship at her home. I am grateful for knowing her daughters Desi and Amy, singing with them for 13 years (really more). I still have gifts they gave me: Amy, the first cup I received with my name on it; Desi, the bench with my name on it. The gifts and you are precious to me even through the years. And your mother gifted you to me. I am grateful for her life, her gifts, and my interaction with her family (from piano-tuning to organ playing to fun and necessary fights), which I know was her pride and joy. And I know that she is safe in the arms of Jesus, the Savior whom she loved with all her heart. May all of you find consolation and joy there as well. Shalom and much love, Marilyn (Rev. Marilyn E. Thornton).

“ To: The Grogan Family, especially William Grogan, Jr. my colleague and friend.

You all have my deepest sympathy, and may God bless you and keep you in His care as you go through this difficult period of grief.

Bill, I know what it is like to lose a mom. May God bring you comfort, peace and wrap you in His loving arms. Mrs. Earlean Grogan was a beautiful, talented and gifted woman. Her gift of piano mastery and music truly passed down to many in your family. Also, she was a great poet. May all in your family, who are gifted in music and writing poetry, continue Mrs. Earlean Grogan's legacy.

God bless you.
