

Eddie L. Marshall Jr

March 30, 1960 - February 24, 2011

Eddie Marshall, of Forestville, Md, died on February 24, 2011 of complications from a bout with Pancreatic Cancer. Services will be held at the Antioch Baptist Church located at 1105 50th Street, NE, Washington, DC, 20019. He was the beloved husband of Vera L. Marshall, father of Tiki Spiller, Yolonda York, and Ebony Holmes; brother of Kevin (Alva) and Keith (Crystal) Marshall; grandfather of Travis, Khiaire, Kharhan, Jalen, Keon and Kameron; uncle to Daniel and Akil and long time best friend to Kevin Washington.

Eddie was born in Somerville, NJ on March 30, 1960 to Eddie, Sr and Ruth Dixie Marshall. He matriculated through the Piscataway Township School system where he graduated from Piscataway High School in 1978. The following fall, he joined the US Air Force and served as a Personnel Specialist at Bergstrom, Air Force Base in San Antonio, and at McGuire, AFB in NJ. From, there he became a computer programmer then an instructor at Keesler, AFB in Biloxi, MS. He finished his Air Force Career at Andrews AFB in DC where he further honed his programming skills which started him on his path to his current career. Along the way, he traveled the country as a consultant to fortune 500 companies as they prepared for the uncertainties of Y2K.

His last and most challenging career assignment was as a SAIC contractor consulting to the US Census Bureau, as the Beta Test Site Project Manager, where he developed a fondness for a number of colleagues whom he considered friends.

Devoted family man, avid bowler, softball player and a budding golfer, Eddie stayed busily engaged in a host of activities.

He will be sorely missed by his dear wife, and family, friends and team mates.
