“ I had the pleasure of knowing this wonderful and I too called him Daddy. He was the most amazing man enjoying life to its fullest and being an amazing father to his children. I am extremely close with his children Fay and David Evans. They loved and cared for their father to the fullest. My condolences to the entire family and the all the hearts that Daddy touched. So many great memories with you. Rest well!!!!

“Pop Pop” as the grandkids called him, always had a smile on his face and loved playing with the kids. Him and Joan were always so funny together, always laughing and joking around. He will be greatly missed. Goodbye Pop Pop, until we meet again. Shelley (Josie) Richardson.
