“ I remember this great man of God. I remember him as being a part of my spiritual and musical family. A man who let me sing in the choir. A man who taught my daughter and me to sing to the glory of God. One day soon our enemy will be destroyed and we will see that bright face again. Our family grieves with you and we love and pray for you. The Mouzons.

“ In my twenties I became ill and had to be hospitalized. I will never forget Mr. Jackson visiting me. While there, he met my future husband Richard. I was not feeling the guy at all, but Mr. Jackson had a long conversation with him and told me to marry him because "that man loves you". I will never forget what s spiritual guidance he was in my life. We did indeed get married and in June celebrated 20 years together!

Jackie Liles-McGhee*
