

Edward Solomon

September 4, 1944 - December 28, 2024

Edward Solomon, son of the late Janie Mae Aikens and Duncan Solomon, was born on December 18, 1944, Edward was raised and educated in the Estill Public School system where he gained a love for business. He began his entrepreneurial journey as a paper delivery boy and eventually owned and operated a mobile hot dog stand, Edward Snack Shack, various rental properties, Ernie's Jersey's and Liquors, and barbershop. It was no limits to what he put his mind to. He departed this life on December 28, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of leadership, love, and cherished memories.

During his illustrious career, Edward cultivated a passion for construction that ultimately led to his rise as a respected Lead Construction and Site Manager for Shockey Construction Group, where he spent the majority of his working years before retiring.

He married his forever love, Millie Lee (Jane) Solomon, who preceded him in death. Together, they created a beautiful family that he treasured deeply.

Edward is survived by his loving sons, Edward Solomon Jr.(6), Dr. Author Solomon-Carr (Darius)(6), Eddie Allison (Shaneika)(8), and Dominic Solomon(6), as well as his beloved daughters, Dr. Shenninta Newman,ABD(1), and Jennifer Solomon (Antonio Ellis)(4), sister Rosa Lee Gardner, and sister-in-law Rose Telfor. He also served as a surrogate parent and helped raise Sheila Solomon, James Solomon, Diane Scott-Rhodan and Benita Heyward. Edward was blessed to have had 35 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. He is also mourned by a host of nieces, nephews, as well as other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his son Ernest Lee Solomon (4), granddaughters Amira and Anira Ellis, nephew John Maxwell, and son-in-law; Steven Newman Jr., He was also preceded in death by his dear brother, Leroy Solomon, as well as several other siblings, leaving behind cherished memories and a legacy of family bonds.

Koot, as he was affectionally known enjoyed flea market shopping with his nephew John Maxwell, Denise Green, and nephew, Walter Maxwell.
