

Ellen Mayo Twyman

September 28, 1933 - October 19, 2006

Ellen Mayo Twyman, was born on September 28, 1933 in Madison, Virginia. She and her brother, Frank were the loving and sometimes mischievous children of Alice and Virgil Fields. From the very beginning it was apparent that Ellen had been touched by the divine hand of God. She joined Mount Pisgah Baptist Church, Tanners, Virginia. It was just the beginning of her sweet communion with the Lord. She believed as the Holy Bible states: ? Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.? 2 Timothy 2:15. She studied the word daily until failing health prevented her from doing so.

She married the late Rev. Albert H. Twyman, Sr. Seven children were born of this union: Barbara Ann, Albert Jr., Sylvester deceased, Oliver, Michael, Anthony, and Ronald. since both Ellen and Albert believed in the saving grace of Jesus, they could do no less than teach the same to their children. The entire family joined Vermont Avenue Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. Ellen joined various groups and organizations using her skills as the spirit led her. A quiet, reserved woman, she enjoyed working in the background and gave her all in whatever capacity she held.

Despite the many accolades, honors, and awards received, she would like to be remembered as a child of God.

She leaves to cherish her memory a legacy of love of family and friends that include six children, nine grandchildren, Laurice, Leslie, Amberlee, Rodney, Randy, Avery, Christian, Justin, and Ciarah; four great-grandchildren, Jordan, Morgan, Ronnice, and Horace III and many more family members and friends.

We are blessed with the strength of God and mother. When you stand with the blessings of your mother and God, it matters not who stands against you.....Yoruba proverb
