

Ellousie Poston

December 7, 2010

ELLOUISE POSTON, 72 passed away on Tuesday, December 7, 2010, after a long courageous battle with kidney failure and stroke related health issues at the Seasons Hospice House. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family during the last days of her life.

Born May 21, 1938, in Burke County, Georgia, she lived in Baltimore, Maryland; Honolulu, Hawaii and Utica, New York, before settling in Upper Marlboro, Maryland.

ELLOUISE enjoyed life with her family. She knew how to appreciate life and showed her love for living in everything she did, whether she was cooking up soul food, dancing and singing to oldies but goodies, sharing a story or a laugh, shuffling and playing cards, attending family events, or just enjoying a cocktail, she did everything with a humor and style that will never be forgotten.

ELLOUISE married James Poston on October 20, 1956 and together they had four children. They walked together for 54 years of marriage, experienced many adventures together, and witnessed many changes in the world.

ELLOUISE is survived by her husband, James, Jr., two sons, Maurice and Anthony a daughter Mischell Holmes, two brothers, Leonard and Wesley; three sisters, Viola, Bessie and Ardell; three daughters-in-law, Roxanne, Beverly and Phyllis; nine grandchildren, three great grandchildren, plus two on the way, Maurice Poston III due April and the other due in May to Andrea.

ELLOUISE is preceded in death by her son James, III, four grandchildren, James IV, Curtis, Louis and Dontee, her parents Rose and Ezekiel Hurst, two brothers James and Clarence, two sisters, Emma Lee and Ella Mae and a niece, Samantha.

ELLOUISE was an amazing woman who loved laughter, family and friends and has a strong will to live.

Thank you for the lessons you taught, the love you shared and the memories we made. We love you and will miss you always.
