“ Uncle Elmer was the best. When we were little he would come to the country to visit my Mom, Dad, and all of us. I remember when he came home from serving in the Navy, he came to see us, and we never wanted him to leave. When we were in our early teens he fell in love with the love of his life, Aunt Kathy, and as much as they enjoyed each others company, they made time for us.

I never met anyone who was more of an avid reader than him. Everyday he would come home with the newspaper under his arm. He would disappear for one hour to freshen up and catch up on world events. He then had time to hook up with us, and listen to our adventures of the day. He and Aunt Kathy exposed us to things and taught us so much.

One year we decided it was time for us to honor him so we threw him a party in his honor. The theme was the measure of a man. We got a chance to roast him and just let him know how much we appreciated him. Whenever Uncle Elmer came in the door, we felt a sense of pride. He always had sound wisdom and kind words. His favorite word was "MERCY", and he extended it to people who so didn't deserve it.

He honored is wife. They were quite the pair, and they trained up two wonderful young people: the son, Dwon and daughter, Shakira.

We'll miss you Uncle Elmer. Thanks for your love and some wonderful memories, Sandra

“ We used to live in the country, and Uncle Elmer would come down to check on his sister (Racheal) and us on a regular basis. When he finished serving in the Navy, he came to visit us, and he had a way of making everyone feel like they were the only one in the room.

We built such a bond with him. When he fell in love with Aunt Kathy, they found time to take us along with them. They exposed us to things we had never seen or done.

We had the opportunity to honor him with a pool party. It was a wonderful surprise. We roasted him. He smiled and laughed all evening. He made us feel like we had given him a million bucks. He was a confidant, a faithful husband, great father, sibling, uncle, cousin, and neighbor. He was well versed in news and world events and ever present as one with a listening hear.

I hear him saying “MERCY”. RIP Uncle Elmer. We love you, Sandra Mason Ginyard

“ I have so many great memories with Uncle Elmer and I am so thankful for them all. One of the best memories was when Sandra and I used to stay with him during the summer along with Grandma Addison and he and his lovely wife Kathy would take us to the drive in movie theatre. I remember we saw J.D. Revenge and Abby. Such a beautiful time always with them. Truly gonna miss you Uncle and God Father Elmer. RIP. Truly earned your wings. I will always love you ❤️
