“ Mother Elnora Gatewood is a woman I had the pleasure of growing up and IBC so many years ago from the 12th Street location to the current location of watching a woman of strong faith and diligence in working in God's vineyard and the privilege to sing in several choirs with her. Rest In Peace Mother Gatewood, singing in God's choir now. To the family I send my deepest condolences, prayers and God's comfort upon you all.

“ "Mother Gatewood" as she was affectionately named was a member of Israel Baptist Church Missionary Ministry for 30 years. She gave willing of her time, her talents and her resources in servicing and witnessing to others. She was quick to remind me and others with her quiet and thoughtful manner to be thankful for His mercy and His grace.."it could have been the other way". ”
