

Emmeline I. Herbert

January 9, 1920 - July 10, 2006

Emmeline Emmielsabel Herbert was born on January 9, 1920 in St. James, Trinidad, West Indies. She was the daughter of the late Beatrice Emily Maud Duggan-Herbert and Thomas Herbert.

She immigrated to the USA in 1967 to better herself and became a U.S. citizen in 1980. She worked in the Washington area for a number of years. After retiring from the Hebrew Home of Greater Washington she moved to Palm Beach for a few years, but then returned to Washington to be closer to her family.

In 2003 as her health began to deteriorate she went to reside at Randolph Hills Nursing Center, where she was cared for until her death. Her beauty and strength has been an inspiration to all who knew and loved her. She will be missed by many.

She is survived by her three daughters, Grace Goddard of Trinidad, Patricia Herbert and Carollyn Herbert-Gibson of Maryland; seven grand children - Leslie Ann Goddard-Davidson, Glenn Goddard, Gillian Goddard-Benjamin, Nicholas Goddard, Gail Goddard-Lewis, Jeneia Gibson, Nerea Gibson; two sons-in-laws, Joseph Goddard and Dave Gibson; 11 great-grand children ? Joelle, Makela, Julien, Kawemina, Tai, Chynenne, Zurie, Carmelo, Ari, Efua, Miles and a host of friends.

ALL WITHIN HIS PLAN

Author Unknown

Sometimes things happen we don't understand

And we begin to question why?

Heartache, pain, disappointment and sorrow

Just do not pass us by.

Even though we're committed to God

And led by His own hand

Trouble and trials still come our way

And it's all within His plan.

Our Saviour Himself faced hardship on earth

As He was tempted, tested and tried

He suffered great pain and agony

And on the old rugged cross He died.

But He arose victorious over sin

Death and the grave

And He lives forever

Our souls to save.

So, when troublesome times come

And we have burdens to bear

Let us always remember our Lord is there

To comfort, strengthen and be our guide.

As we follow His word

And in Him abide?.

And where we can't trace Him

In what comes our way.

Let us simply trust Him

As we walk each day

Knowing He's fully in control.

Working all things out

For the good of our soul
Then as we're tempted to question why?
When things happened we don't understand.
Let us on Him completely rely
Knowing all is within His Plan.
