

Eric Deon'te Bell

January 8, 1984 - May 2, 2008

Eric Deon'te Bell Edge-Ja-Be, was born January 8, 1984 in Washington, DC; and attended Maryland schools.

Eric was a sweet and kind person; he enjoyed life and loved his family and friends. He was laid back and shy until he got to know you; but a true friend to many. He got along well with people, no matter who you were. Eric often talked to his mother Pam about God, asking many questions, trying to learn and understand the purpose of life.

Eric was the man to call if you needed anything fixed. He was very good with his hands, fixing whatever you gave him, helping anyone he could. He was a very hard worker and a loving father.

Those left to cherish his memory are his son Deon'te and daughter Ericka; mother Pamela Leach; two brothers; James Leach, and Tyrone McKinney and his daughter Tyranah, and wife Janeisa of Maryland; one sister Jeanetta Hutchinson of Maryland and her daughter-Jenora and son-Nathaniel; grandparents, Lee Bell and late wife Pearlie Mae Bell; one aunt Roita Bell and her two son's David and Alonzo and daughter-Keyonna; two uncle's Terry Bell and wife Julie Bell and their son-Nicholas and daughter-Kateland, and late uncle Jerry Bell; along with numerous great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins and friends.
