“ Dear Irvin, Sr., Jackie and Irvin, Jr.;

My family and I send our condolences. I met all of you last year during Coolidge's football season. And indeed it has been a pleasure. You all have become family to me. It was fun listening to Eric and Big Proctor talking about crazy things that went on. They kept me laughing. Eric you will definitely be missed. To the Proctor family, please know that as we weep at what has happened, death cannot diminish the important ways Eric touch our lives, grief cannot take away the happiness shared, sorrow will fade in time, love remains forever and there is comfort in GOD's word. May you all find strength in family and friends.

Sincerely,

La'Faye, David and Michael##imported-begin##La'Faye Lewis-Oliver##imported-end##

“The righteous perish, and no one ponders it in his heart; devout men are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.”

“ It's always sad to lose a loved one, but we must never forget that they live on thru us. In our memories as well as our hearts. We all will miss Eric, he definitely had a unique personality, but we have to be mindful that it was God's will and His will is perfect. May the peace and understanding, that only God can provide, be with all affected by this unexpected loss. He is resting in peace with his Father now. God bless.###imported-begin###Ebony ###imported-end##
