“ Libby,
We spent some good times and talks together over the years that I will not forget. I THANK YOU for your trueness and love. When we spoke last, you were in the hospital, we both said to one another “I Love You” which we always did and will always be. You are in the good hands of our Lord and Savior and an Angel watching over Tiller, FatBoy and many others.

“ *"People say I'm the life of the party
Because I tell a joke or two
Although I might be laughing loud and hearty
Deep inside I'm blue
So take a good look at my face
You'll see my smile looks out of place
If you look closer, it's easy to trace
The tracks of my tears"--Smokey Robinson*

“ We are sad to learn the passing of a former neighbor(Kennedy St), and friend at work. I met Erma at the Department of State and we became friends.I soon found out we were also neighbors. Our path cross down through the years and almost became neighbors again. I saw her one day at the gas stations across the streets from where she lived. I continued seeing her from time to time because we shopped at the same grocery store.

She was such a pleasant person. The family has our prayers at this time. May God give you comfort.

“ Libby, I remember your sweet disposition, I can close my eyes and see you sitting in the living room of my grandmothers house. The last time I saw you I was eight years old. Barbara asked you to babysit us. Dawn of the Dead the movie was on the television and I could hear it from upstairs. I asked you to turn the volume down. I still think about that day whenever that movie comes on.

My condolences to Little Robbie, who was the spitting image of his father.
