“ *In Memory of My Loving "Big Sister" Ernestine - We only knew each for 2 years - and only met once during a 3 day visit to DC in 2015. Family secrets kept us apart but the truth always rises to the earth. I searched the internet for Ernestine 2 years ago and when I found her, she totally embraced me into her heart.
I am totally devastated by her loss, there was so much I wanted to share with my only sister and will never get the change. But I thank God for her life and I thank God that we met and were able to totally bond. I will miss her phone calls -"hey Little sister - this is Big sister checking up on you"!! Ernestine may you rest in peace - all your physical pain and suffering is over and I will cherish your memory forever. My sympathy to the family and Jovon and I hope I will be comfort to him.*

“ In Memory of MY Loving "Big Sister" - I only met my "Big Sister" in person - ONE TIME -for a few days - two years ago. We were kept apart because of family secrets. But the truth has a way of rising to the earth. I searched her name on the internet and called her blind one day. She genuinely embraced me from the beginning without hesitation and with pure love.

I am totally devastated by her loss; there were so many things I wanted to share with her and two years just wasn't enough but I thank God we did meet and I have her voice, her spirit and her love in my heart forever. She called me her "Little Sister".

REST IN PEACE - BIG SISTER -I will miss your cheerful voice and comfort. My sympathy to her son Javon and the rest of her family.
