

Estella L. Miller

June 2, 1935 - July 18, 2023

Estella Linda Miller was born on June 2, 1935 to the late Ana and George Harrison in Washington, DC. She was the middle of three children. She was raised and educated in Washington, DC, graduating from Cardozo High School.

As a young woman she helped her mother take care of the household. In 1953, Estella married Richard Miller, Sr. From this union two beautiful children were born, Richard Miller, Jr., and Linda Maria Faxio. Estella began her career in the Federal Government, starting at the Census Bureau in 1962 and later moving to the Pentagon where she worked for 25 years. She retired from Federal Service in 1993.

After retiring Estella dedicated her time to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was at every school play, assembly, sports, dance and cheer activity to support her family. She also enjoyed cooking, playing her lottery numbers, and secretly winning from time to time. Everyday you knew Estella would be on that phone for hours talking to her best friend Phyllis, and her cousins Vernell, Barbara and Ollie-Ruth.

On Tuesday, July 18, 2023, Estella was called home to be with the Lord after a short battle with cancer. Estella was preceded in death by her husband and her son (Richard Miller, Sr. and Richard Miller, Jr., as well as her two brothers,

Robert-Lee Harrison and Bernard Harrison.

She leaves to cherish and honor her life well lived, her devoted daughter and best friend, Linda Faxio; grandchildren, Michan Faxio, Marcus Faxio, Zsatique Ferrell, and Richard Miller, III; great grandchildren, Lorenzo D. Garner, Andre "Turk" Beckwith, Jr., Payton Flythe, and Helena Faxio; one great-great grandson, Lorenzo D. Garner, Jr; and her long-time dedicated, loving friend of over 50 years, Allen Brown, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Estella lived a long, happy, blessed life and she will be missed immensely!
