“ Sam, I am sad to hear about the loss of your Mother. Our parents were special people that loved us unconditionally and gave us so much. In those quiet times-that I appreciate more and more in my life-I find myself remembering our youth and young adult years. Your home was our home and your Mother and Father cared for us, joked with us, and guided us. I know that part of who I am today is a result of those days and experiences.

With Love and Great Memories,
