“ I so remember Auntie Esther as being so kind, so soft spoken. I remember her telling me, "there is not a thing wrong with being tall, it is better to have people look up to you then to have them look down." She gave me my first chap-stick which I didn't want to use because she gave it to me. I have great great memories of her. Rest in peace auntie Esther, as God takes you home we will meet again.

*Love

“ I'm truly sorry to hear of Esther's passing. I worked with her some years ago. I remember her sweet disposition. She was always very kind and had an amazing attitude. She spoke a lot about her daughter. Her family was her heart. I know I will be seeing Esther again because I know that her heart was with the Lord. Condolences to the family. May the Lord keep you and comfort you.
