“ *We can't say we know how you feel,
but we care;
We can't make things easier,
but we will pray;
We can't walk this path for you,
but we'll walk beside you.
May God comfort you today.##imported-begin##Bradie & Lucy frink##imported-end##*

“ Catherine;
I was sorry to hear of Joe's passing, you and your entire family is in my prayers. Be assured, God makes no mistakes, as he felt the need to bring Joe home, trust me he will give you the strength you need to go on, just keep the faith.

I am out of town, if I get back in time I will see you, if not please feel free to call me if I can do anything.##imported-begin##CHRISTINE LEAKE##imported-end##

“ Cathy and Family

We extend to your our love and prayers at Joe's home-going. When someone we love leaves us, time seems to stand still. We long for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We can't understand why we didn't have more time to do and say all the things we planned. Remember not just that Joe has passed, but that he lived and that his life gave you memories too beautiful to forget. May the love of family and friends and the promises of our Savior comfort you and give you peace.##imported-begin##Connie & Clinton Braxton##imported-end##
