I was very saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. Miller. I will cherish all the fond memories of her and how well she nurtured and cared for the entire family. I know all of you will agree that she is a loving, mom, grandmother, and wife, and I thank our saviour for the blessing of knowing and having such a truly remarkable person in my life. May God comfort and keep the family close to him at this difficult time and continue to shine his unwavering love & grace on all of you.
