“ Dear Doreen, Deborah, Darryl and Martin jr. I was so sad when I read of your mother's death in the paper a few days ago. Had I heard about this earlier, I would have attended the homegoing service. Evelyn and I worked together for many years at NIH in the Westwood Bldg. We were the best of friends at that time and I have often thought of her and how she was doing. Now I know she is walking around heaven with your dad. Please accept my deepest sympathy and I pray for your strength during the hours ahead. Without a doubt, I know each day will get better for you all. If there is anything I can do to help you all, please call me 301 773-2639. God Bless each of you. Love Ms. Pat.##imported-begin##Patricia Young##imported-end##

“ Oh Mom, my heart still aches for you. I miss our telephone calls throughout each day, I miss you wanting me or Gregory to stop by and check that never-working computer, or to get your voicemails off the telephone, or to change the lightbulb in the kitchen. I miss the sound of your voice, so I play your last voicemail message to me over and over again. I miss your "pop-calls" to play "500" at my house. I miss seeing the hugs my children would give you as you walked through the front door. But most of all, I miss your beautiful smile. I'll love you always. Your Daughter,##imported-begin##Doreen##imported-end##

“ I remember Evelyn Cook as a very gracious lady. I knew her husband, Martin, better since he was a member of my church, but every time my path crossed with Evelyn she was so pleasant, thoughtful, and caring. Martin always spoke of her with love and I know that she was a devoted wife and mother. My heartfelt sympathy to all the family and friends. Let us remember and treasure the good times and memories.##imported-begin##Esther Harter##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences & prayers for all of the family at this time. It is amazing that I have known you all for over 30 years. Going to school & growing up together in many ways, thru HTS Leslie & Doreen, Tot's & Teens... & the many memories I have you, your mother & your entire family throughout those years. Bowling, skiing, or even the mundane task of catching the bus home from school with Leslie Martin Jr.. Those memories & memories of your kind & jovial mother will always remain. Remember, especially at this time that, those who die still live in God's presence, and that their lives change but do not end. I pray in hope for your entire family, relatives and friends, & for all those who knew Evelyn. She will always be remembered. As a person of faith, of resurrection faith, I am convinced, a transition from life to life, from grace to glory has happened for your mother grandmother. I will not be in attendance to her celebration of life on tomorrow. I will say a special "Rosary" in honor of her life. ##imported-begin## Dr. William M. Goins ##imported-end##
