“ Our family was very sorry to hear of Evelyn's passing. We send her family our deepest sympathies. We were blessed to get to know Evelyn and Bishop Bess, along with their friend Charlotte when Bishop Bess and our father were roommates in a nursing home. They were such a pleasure and we could rely on each other to watch out for our loved ones. Evelyn, Charlotte, and my sister, Toni and I went out to lunch often and had so much fun. We miss her very much.

“ As I grew up in the Federation of Holy Trinity Churches I watched Evelyn Bess and knew this was a lady I wanted to get to know. I was blessed with that opportunity when her husband became our Pastor. We became great sisters in the Lord especially because our birthdays was in the same month of the year. When I called their home Bishop Bess always knew I was calling to talk with his wife and he was very patient with us and let us have our hour long conversations. I cannot wait until we meet again so we can continue our conversations.
