“ To the Dawson and Blount Families:

Please accept our deepest sympathy on the passing of Mr. Fletcher Blount. Mr. Blount and my husband, Clifton Davis were friends during the days living on 14th Street, NW., Washington, DC. They both shared a hobby in common that produced a lot of memories together.

Also, my husband and I, and members of the “Blount” family left rural North Carolina to come to the big city, Washington, DC to improve our quality of life. During the years, we would all meet in La Grange, North Carolina, each July, until the pandemic, to celebrate the La Grange/Frink Alumni and Friends Association Annual Weekend get together. Our weekend of fellowship, which included several events and lots of good soul food were along the lines of an annual family reunion.

Therefore, it is with heavy hearts that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the “Dawson” and “Blount” families. We are lifting everyone in prayer and please know that we feel your sorrow and pain as our families have traveled this same road. However, know that God will get you through these difficult days, along with prayers and the continuing love of family and friends.

*Be blessed with much love!
